Reasonable Adjustments - new members

Reasonable adjustments are changes that support you to fully take part.

Examples of reasonable adjustments to support new members:

- Help filling out forms.

- Asking to join meetings and events online
- Comfort breaks

Use box 1 to share your needs as a new member.

1. Hello, I'm a new member and I would like to share the support I need so I can fully take part. I need:

Please tell me who I should contact if my needs change. Or if I experience any barriers.

Reasonable Adjustments - selection

Examples of reasonable adjustments when you stand for selection:

- Having more time to speak.

- Different types of events for people to get to know you.

- Sending your statement – what you stand for, in a video or writing.

Use box 2 to share your needs when you go for selection.

2. I am standing for selection within the party. To fully take part, I need:

These reasonable adjustments are needed so I can take part like others can. Please tell me who is responsible for organising them.
